In order to comply with the Data Protection Act, please indicate your consent for the Royal Deeside Railway Preservation Society to store the information you have provided electronically by ticking or checking the adjacent box. The data provided will only be used for Royal Deeside Railway purposes.

Volunteers at the railway have a wide variety of backgrounds, the vast majority of whom have never worked in the railway industry, but all of whom have a keen interest in contributing to their community and in making an impact in whatever way they can. Age or inexperience is not a barrier, with one of the attractions being young and old working together, exchanging knowledge and enthusiasm. Developing and running a railway is a complex business so whatever your skills, interest, abilities, or the amount of time that you can give, rest assured there is a role for you. Safety is of paramount importance and concern, so training is given wherever necessary and all activities are undertaken under experienced supervision until an individual gains a sufficient level of experience and knowledge.

Planned activities for the coming week(s) are published on the website under the 'Volunteer' tab. Please check this a couple of days before you plan to come along to the railway as some of the activities are weather dependent, e.g. painting, and may need to be rearranged at short notice. In such circumstances it will be endeavoured to arrange alternative activities.

Notification of activities is via the website as described above and through email, unless requested otherwise. Normally, only in the event of short notice changes to plans would contact via telephone be made.

Please hand your completed form into the shop or alternatively you can email it to our Volunteers Co-ordinator (see website for address), or complete the online form (www.deeside-railway.co.uk/library/forms.html). If you would like to know more about what we do or how your skill set, time and efforts can help, please contact the Volunteers Co-ordinator in the first instance who will be more than happy to point you in the right direction and get you in touch with the right department. We look forward to welcoming you on board.
